

LEGAL PHILOSOPHY BETWEEN STATE AND TRANSNATIONALISM

— A NATHANSON CENTRE SEMINAR —

“International Criminal Law in Practice: The New Leviathan?”

MARGARET MARTIN

Western University

Margaret Martin is an Associate Professor at Western University in the Faculty of Law. She earned her PhD at Cambridge University. She also has an MA in philosophy from McMaster University, and an MSL from the University of Toronto. Her areas of expertise include legal philosophy, international criminal law, constitutional law, and criminal theory. Margaret's recent book Judging Positivism was published by Hart Publishing in 2014.

ROOM 4034 OSGOODE HALL LAW SCHOOL

Friday, December 2, 2016
2:30–4:30

DESIGN - UGOCHI.CA